PRESIDENT TAFT VISITS TACOMA

Greeted by a Large Crowd in the Armory There.

TALKS ABOUT PANAMA CANAL

Statement That the Big Ditch Would Be Completed in 1915 Arouses Great Enthusiasm, as the Entire Pacific Coast Expects to Benefit Greatly by the Short All-Water Route From the Eastern Seaboard.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 2.—President Taft came to Tacoma and received from an audience that thronged the big armory one of the most cordial greetings of his trip. The president was entertained at dinner at the Union club, after making the trip from Seattle on board the yacht El Primero, owned by Chester Thorne. The torpedo boat destroyer Perry escorted the yacht. Before leaving Seattle the president paid a last visit to the exposition to view the big live stock exhibition. Mr. Taft apparently found great interest in the exhibit and passed more than twice the length of time allotted to it. Finally from the judges' stand, he made a brief speech amid a chorus of bleats and grunts and the howling of kine, complimenting the exhibitors on their fine showing and the progress that had been made in this country in the past fifteen years in the way of scientific farming and breeding.

From the exposition grounds the president motored to the Seattle Country club, where he took luncheon and passed the early afternoon on the golf links.

President Taft promised to attend another exposition to be held on the Pacific coast in 1915 in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal. Mr. Taft said the date was beyond his term of office, but that his interest in the Panama canal and in the extension of trade on the Pacific had been so great for so many years that he readily gave his promise to attend.

To Be Held in California.

The invitation was extended by Colonel D. C. Collier, director general of the Panama-California exposition, which is to be held in San Diego, Cal., the nearest Western coast city to the Pacific entrance of the canal; and George Burham, a director of the exposition company.

President Taft's unqualified statement in his speeches here that the Panama canal would be completed in 1915 aroused great enthusiasm, as the entire Pacific coast is expecting to profit greatly by the short all-water route from the Eastern seaboard and the opening of European markets to this section. All of the South and Central American countries, especially those of the west coast, will be invited to take a pretentious part in the Panama exposition. The extension of trade between the United States and South America, the president declared, was another feature of the exposition which elicited his deep interest.

When the president left here and headed to the south he had completed 5,000 miles of his 13,000-mile journey. In matter of elapsed time, however, his journey was less than one-third completed.

During the time he has been "on the road" the president has made eight speeches of first importance which have clearly set forth his views on nearly every question of importance and he announced that he had completed the list of set addresses which he had planned before leaving Beverly.

STRUCK BY TRAIN OF CARS

Passenger Train Damaged in Collision at Youngstown, O.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 2.—While entering Youngstown under full steam passenger train No. 215 on the Pennsylvania railroad, westbound, was struck by a train of cars backed out of a local steel plant, separating the engine from the tender and train. Kent Stafford, fireman, was thrown from the engine and will die, while Engineer B. F. Cummins fell off and was seriously injured. For two miles the engine ran wild through the city. Near the upper works of the Carnegie Steel company it struck a switch engine, knocking it off the track forty feet. Engineer Charles A. Simpson of the switch engine is seriously injured, while the fireman escaped with a few bruises. The passenger train was stopped by the wreckage of the tender and its passengers escaped unhurt.

En route to the scene of the accident a local ambulance upset on the Central square of the city.

FIGHT OVER ESTATE ENDED

Mrs. Yerkes Will Get a Third of Her Husband's Property.

New York, Oct. 2.—Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, widow of the Chicago traction magnate, has finally arranged for a settlement of the fight over her husband's estate, according to the World. Under the settlement, it is said, Mrs.

MRS. C. T. YERKES.

Yerkes will get virtually a third interest in the value of the estate or substantially the same amount she would have obtained if the court had awarded to her dower rights under the laws of Illinois.

PEARY THE HERO OF THE HOUR

Explorer the Chief Attraction in Naval Parade.

New York, Oct. 2.—New York, city and state, gave Commander Robert E. Peary a welcome home such as few returning heroes can hope to receive. From the bridge of his ship Roosevelt, Commander Peary, with his wife by his side, was the most prominent feature of the sixty-mile Hudson-Fulton naval parade from New York to Newburgh. All the way land and water vied with each other in hurling their cheers of congratulation through the air to the white little ship whereon the tall military looking man smiled back his answer to their greetings.

Having successfully buffeted the ice packs of Smith sound and proved herself so stout a ship that no sea or ice foe could turn her back, the Roosevelt picked out the most tranquil part of the Hudson just below West Point as the scene for an accident to her steering gear. Unostentatiously and without warning she parted her port tiller rope and came to a stop. The mishap was quickly discovered by Commander Peary and anchor was dropped while the rope was spliced. But there was a delay of nearly an hour before the boat proceeded toward Newburgh.

"It has been most gratifying to have taken part in the parade," said Commander Peary, "and I am deeply appreciative of the reception that has been given the officers and crew of the Roosevelt and myself. It was magnificent."

Mrs. Peary Delighted.

Mrs. Peary also was delighted with the fine welcome given by the hundreds of marine craft, which showed themselves proud of the privilege of greeting her and her distinguished husband. She smiled back her happiness in response to each salute, whether from a battleship or from a saucy launch. Mrs. Peary had been deeply apprehensive that the Cook controversy might chill the greeting to her husband, but her fears were dispelled when the Cetius, the first of the long line of crowded excursion steamers to pass the Roosevelt, threw an echoing and re-echoing volley of huzzas and cries of "Peary, Peary," across the water to the bridge where she and Mr. Peary stood.

J. Pierpont Morgan, on his yacht Corsair with a party of friends, gave Commander Peary and the Roosevelt a graceful greeting.

The Roosevelt dropped anchor near the United States flotilla off Newburgh in the evening but the lateness of the hour did not diminish the noisy greeting of the vessels anchored there.

"MICHAEL'S"

Commander Peary and his party boarded a tug and were put ashore at Fishkill Landing, where they took a train for New York.

The stay of Mr. and Mrs. Peary in New York was brief. Both soon departed for Portland. The explorer declined to talk about the Cook controversy, except to say that General Hubbard, president of the Peary Arctic club, would make public a statement on the subject early in the coming week.

WHITNEY IN SALEM, MASS.

New Haven Hunter Tells About Cook's Records.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 2.—Harry Whitney, the New Haven hunter, who is on his way home from Greenland, left the St. Johns express here, instead of continuing to Boston, where it was thought he might meet Dr. Cook. In response to an inquiry at Portland he said:

"The report that a meeting has been arranged between Dr. Cook and myself is unfortunate. I have had no communication with either Dr. Cook or Peary."

Regarding Dr. Cook's records, Mr. Whitney said that when Dr. Cook gave him the boxes at Etah the explorer opened one, remarking "this contains my instruments," and showed them to Mr. Whitney. There was another box which Dr. Cook did not open and the contents of which Mr. Whitney says he did not know, though he has no reason to doubt Dr. Cook's statement that in it were rough drafts and notes concerning the discovery of the North pole.

Lipton After the Cup.

London, Oct. 2.—Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to make another attempt to "lift" the America's cup. The baronet sails for New York on Oct. 9 for the purpose of looking over the ground and consulting the authorities of the New York Yacht club in an endeavor to induce them to permit him to challenge under the universal rule.

MONOPOLY IS BEING FORMED

Pinchot Says It Seeks to Obtain Water Power Sites.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Asserting that a monopoly now is being formed whose object is to obtain possession of the water power sites of the country, Gifford Pinchot, chief of the bureau of forestry, who returned from the West, declared that remedial legislation must be enacted at the coming session of congress if this great natural resource is to be preserved to the people.

Looming up as another big problem which will confront congress will be the question of the disposition of vast areas of coal lands in the West, but principally in Alaska. It is important that congress should take prompt action on this important matter, Mr. Pinchot said, for the protection of the country's fuel supply and also to prevent a monopoly in that product.

Any doubt that may have existed as to whether Mr. Pinchot would continue to advocate the policies regarding the conservation of the country's natural resources was set at rest by him. Not only did Mr. Pinchot assert that President Taft is thoroughly imbued with the conservation movement, but he declared that the people of the country are now more completely aroused over the matter than at any previous time.

Mr. Pinchot declined to throw any light on the so-called Ballinger-Pinchot controversy over the conservation question. That he has no intention of relinquishing his position as chief forester, as the result of that incident, was reiterated when he declared emphatically, "I am not going to resign."

RAILROAD PLEADS GUILTY

Southern Pacific Fined a Thousand Dollars for Rebating.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 2.—The Southern Pacific railroad pleaded guilty in the United States district court to rebating and was fined $1,000 by Judge Wellborn.

Through Attorney C. M. Dubrow of San Francisco, the company entered a plea of technical and unintentional guilt. The maximum penalty would have been $20,000.

Words and Deeds.

Words are the daughters of earth, but deeds are the sons of heaven.—Indian Proverb.

STUDENTS SAVE TWO WOMEN

Takes Them Safely From a Burning Fraternity Lodge.

Minneapolis, Oct. 2.—Two members of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity at the university were severely burned, the matron and a maid were overcome with smoke when a fire gutted the fraternity lodge at night. The two undergraduates, who were severely although not dangerously burned, received their injuries in rescuing the matron and the maid.

The third floor of the house was gutted and the loss will be $1,000 on the dwelling and $600 on the contents. It is believed that the fire started from a match which was dropped in a closet.

The injured are Harold L. Downing, Minneapolis, severely burned about head and neck; Ralph J. Barke, Ferguson Falls, painfully burned about head, neck and hands.

The matron and maid were overcome with smoke, but were revived after they had been assisted from the house. In saving them, Downing and Barke ran a gauntlet of flame in the upper hallway.

The offices of the engineers of the Cuyuna Iron Range railroad, at Deerwood, were broken into Wednesday night and six suits of underwear belonging to one of the assistant engineers, were taken. Two suits of clothes belonging to another of the helpers were also confiscated. The most remarkable thing about the burglary is that the burglars left unmolested instruments valued up in the thousands. Not even a pen or pencil was touched. This is one of the first burglaries to take place in Deerwood in many years.

The only clew to the perpetrators of the theft is that Will Johnson came out of Johnson's pharmacy about 11 o'clock in the evening and saw two roughly dressed men looking at the boat. They examined it for a few minutes and then walked away and left it.

OLD ENGLISH COOKERY.
A Lively Feast With Much Delight and Pleasure.
A study of Robert May's "Accomplice Cook," published in 1665, will serve to dispel the delusion fostered by many foreign critics that English cookery lacks variety. One of May's recipes is for the construction of a ship of confectionery, with guns charged with actual powder, and a castle of pies containing live frogs and birds. After giving directions as to the firing of the guns he proceeds: "This done, to sweeten the stink of the powder let the ladies take the eggshells full of sweet waters and throw them at each other. All danger being seemingly over, by this time you may suppose they will desire to see what is in the pyes; when, lifting first the lid off one pye, out skip some frogs, which makes the ladies to skip and shriek; next after the other pye, whence come out the birds, who, by a natural instinct, flying in the light will put out the candles; so that, what with the flying birds and skipping frogs, the one above, the other beneath, will cause much delight and pleasure to the whole company."—London Chronicle.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. MAGNETISM.
Some of the Peculiar Properties of This Strange Force.
The true nature of magnetism as such, of course, is not known. All that we can be sure of is that magnetic attraction does not radiate outward in all directions as does light, but simply acts along lines consisting of closed curves and called lines of force, these lines connecting the two poles and not extending very far outward between them. These curves may be found very nicely by placing a horseshoe magnet under a thin sheet of paper and sprinkling iron filings on top. The filings will collect along the lines.
Now, as to the different kinds of magnets, there are natural, artificial and electro magnets. The natural ones are found as magnetic ore in the earth, the artificial ones are made by stroking a piece of iron or steel with a magnet, and the electro magnets are caused by the action of an electric current.
Some peculiar things have been noticed in regard to magnetism, among which are the following facts:
It has been observed that fire irons that have rested in one position during the summer months are often highly magnetized, no doubt having been caused by the magnetism of the earth itself by the process known as induction. Other iron articles that stay in one position and do not come in contact with fire or other heat are often found in the same condition, such as iron bars to jail windows and iron railings in front of houses.
The most peculiar observation made,

"Boye" Needle Threader

Slipp - Gruenhagen Co.

however, was that the upper part of the steel tire, of a carriage wheel attracts the north pole of a magnet, while the bottom part, or part in contact with the earth, attracts the south pole. This is in the northern hemisphere only and is fully in accord with the theory of induced magnetism. Of course in the southern hemisphere, where the earth is under the influence of the south magnetic pole, the conditions are reversed.
A magnet dipped into boiling water loses a great part of its magnetism, which is miraculously restored to it on becoming cool again.
A sharp blow given to a magnet will cause it to lose its magnetism. Also the application of heat will have a like effect.
If a magnetic needle be placed over a rapidly revolving plate of copper, although it be separated from it by a thick plate of glass, the needle will revolve in the same direction as the plate.—Exchange.

A Little Crowded.
A backwoodsman went to New York city for the first time, says the Saturday Evening Post. He stopped at a Broadway hotel which was pretty well downtown. Next morning his nephew, who lives in New York, came to take him out and show him the sights. They walked down Broadway until they got to Canal street. The backwoodsman stopped and contemplated the great congestion of traffic there, hundreds of trucks going every way.
"Son," he said to his nephew, "you have a nice city here, but it 'pears to me that your folks is a hull passel behind in their haulin'."

ORPHAN TOTS LOSE MOTHER

Seven Fatherless Youngsters Given
Homes When Their Mother
Goes to Insane Asylum

Minneapolis, Oct. 2.—Troubles have piled in heavily upon seven young children of the Oberg family of 2215 Bloomington avenue, within a period of two weeks, leaving them fatherless and motherless until yesterday when G. A. Merrill, superintendent of the state school of Owatonna, received the major portion of the orphaned family.

The children's father died about a fortnight ago and was taken to Brainerd for burial, and the mother, Mrs. Alma Oberg, on Monday was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Rochester. The children, including Harold, 13 years old;
David, 12; Reuben, 8; Walter, 5;
Paul, 8 months, and two little girls,
Ruth, aged 9 and Novella, a twin sister of Reuben, were without means of support or any relatives to care for them.

S. L. Van Etten, of the Humane society, became interested in the family and found a home for the two little girls. The rest of the family were put in the state school in the hope that if the mother's health is restored within a few months' time,
the children may be returned to her.

WAS ARRANGED TODAY

Preliminary Hearing of David E.
Robbins is Set for Next Thursday at 10 O'clock A. M.

David E. Robbins, who was brought back from Cando, N. D., by Sheriff Reid, was arraigned this morning on a statutory charge. The hearing was set for next Thursday at 10 o'clock. As the girl was over 14, at the time the crime is alleged to have been committed, instead of under 14 as first stated, the penalty of the crime is imprisonment from one to 7 years, instead of 7 to 30 years, as reported. This puts the setting of bail within the jurisdiction of the municipal court and he fixed the amount at $500, which Mr. Robbins believes he can secure. Mrs. Robbins, who is a sister of the alleged victim,
sides with her husband and will aid him in his defense.

ALL ROADS POINT TO BRAINERD

Mississippi & Northern, to be Created
Out of Cross Lake Road, Wants to Come Here

ITS BUILDING NOW ASSURED

Cuyuna Range Railroad Said to Be Making Arrangements to Build
to Brainerd

A. T. Kimball, of Pelican Creek, on the proposed line of the Mississippi & Northern, as the railroad to be created out of the old Cross Lake logging road is to be called, is in Brainerd and states that all the right of way has been secured as far south as Ossipee. He states that the promoters are very emphatic in their declarations that the road will be built and that at once, or at least not later than next summer.

The farmers of the town of Emily have pledged that they will do the grading of one mile of the road free of expense, in addition to giving the right of way. The people up there, who have been isolated from the world from the beginning of settlement over thirty years ago, are very enthusiastic over prospects. Mr.
Kimball says that he is sure that the road will be built and that it will be built to Brainerd, if proper inducements are extended. He states that the citizens there, who have always regarded Brainerd as their market town, are very anxious that it come here and that Brainerd shall extend a welcoming hand.

Rumors that the Cuyuna Range railroad is securing right of way into this city, continue, despite denials.
It is stated by those who claim to have absolute knowledge, that this road is aiming to tap the heavy finds of ore just south and southeast of the city, notably on the Bouck and the Rosko and Hildebrandt places.
While denying any immediate intention of coming to Brainerd, the officials of the road admit that it is the logical ultimate destination, and that it may continue southeast along the range into Morrison county. It is stated that the line of the railroad will follow approximately along the line of magnetic attraction, passing through the Holland tract in the southeastern portion of the city.

Death of George Ingraham a Surprise to George Nevers, Who Visited Him the Previous Evening

George Nevers, who arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, was much shocked to hear of the death of George Ingraham, which took place yesterday in a hospital in Fargo. He and Ralph Nevers were in Fargo night before last and he went to the hospital to see Mr. Ingraham, who, while confined to the bed, was not considered in a critical condition. He was troubled with enlargement of the heart, with dropsy and other complications, including kidney trouble, and it is supposed that heart failure
was the immediate cause of death.

CURE FOR ECZEMA

Gives Relief in a Night and Makes Complete Cure in Short Time

The remarkable demand for Hokara, the skin food, at H. P. Dunn's is not surprising when it is remembered that even in the worst cases of eczema, it stops the itching with the first night's application, begins to heal up the diseased skin almost immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks.
In lesser troubles, such as pimples,
blackheads, barber's itch, ache, rash, piles, etc., a few days use will usually cure.

In order that no one may be kept from using Hokara by the cost, a liberal sized jar is sold for 25c at H. P.
Dunn's drug store. Furthermore, if Hokara does not do all that is claimed for it, even this small sum will be returned.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure or heated blood and the bowels are in need of medicine, use Hokara Blood tablets—50c a package

WOMAN KILLED BEAR

Wife of a Farmer Near Aitkin Kills Bear Who is Making a Raid on Her Bee Hives

Aitkin, Minn., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Geo.
McGregor, living a few miles northwest of town, killed a big bear yesterday. The bear had been stealing part of the family supply of honey from the bee hives, but had been able to escape detection until yesterday, when it came to the McGregor home in broad daylight. Mrs. McGregor was alone at the time, but she took down the family rifle and went out and gave battle to the bear. After the first shot the bear took to the woods, close by, with the plucky lady in pursuit, and she had not gone far before she found the bear dead. Her shot had been effective.

His bearship measured nine feet
and six inches from tip of tail to tip of nose, and when dressed weighed over four hundred pounds. Mrs.
McGregor is the daughter of L. E.
Turner, a well known business man here, and her friends are complimenting her on her nerve and marksmanship.

TIME TO ACT

Dont Wait for the Fatal Stages
of Kidney Illness, Profit Brainerd People's Experiences

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attack may pass off for a time but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy, puffing swell-ings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles, or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when your old health and vigor will return. Cures in Brainerd prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. B. F. Hannon, living at 506
Elm St., N. E., Brainerd, Minn., says:
"Mr. Hannon has been greatly benefited by using Doan's Kidney Pills.
His kidneys were in a disordered condition for a long time and he suffered intensely from pains in his right side and across his hips. His case was diagnosed by a physician as kidney trouble and despite the use of their medicines he gradually grew worse. He was scarcely able to work in fact he could not rest well at night on account of the dull aching in his back. The use of a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from H. P. Dunn's drug store helped him a great deal and I take pleasure in recommending them as an excellent remedy for all complaints arising from disordered kidneys."

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

HARP OF 100 STRINGS.

Two Altoona (Pa.) Mechanics Make Marvelous Instrument.

After working for three years during their spare moments William Russell, a retired cabinetmaker, and his son, Bushman Russell, a musician and dancing master, both of Altoona, Pa., have finished a full stringed chromatic harp of magnificent tone.

It differs from the ordinary harp, as the pedals have been done away with. To make up for the pedals 100 strings are used, one for every tone, instead of forty-two, as on the ordinary harp. The Russells recorded six failures before they finally succeeded. The great difficulty was in getting the pin blocks strong enough, 100 strings exerting a force of over five tons on them when in tune.

Twitching of the Nerves

Wonderful cure brought about by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS.

It is only by watching the symptoms of nervous exhaustion and applying restorative treatment that you can ever hope to ward off locomotor ataxia and paralysis.

Mr. J. H. Garrison, North Fairfield, Ohio, Route No. 2, writes: "My health failed me and I became a victim of nervous debility. I was weak, nervous and irritable; my arms and legs would jerk and twitch, and as I was 62 years of age did not expect to benefit much by the use of medicine."

"Great was my surprise, however, when I began using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, for it was not long before my nerves were as steady as clockwork and my system began to build up. I cannot begin to express my appreciation for the benefit. It is the best medicine I ever had in the house."

Such cases as this prove the wonderful efficiency of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. They cure in Nature's way by enriching the blood and for this reason their benefits are lasting. 50 cts. a box, all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Get the genuine.

COOK DECLINES TO SUBMIT DATA

Not Ready to Let Commission Examine His Records.

TO KEEP HIS FIRST PROMISE

Brooklyn Explorer Will Submit His Material to the University of Copenhagen, as He Thinks It Would Be an Injustice to the Danes to Do Otherwise—Commander Peary Willing to Submit His Records.

New York, Oct. 2.—Dr. Cook's refusal to submit his observations, notes and other data at once to a competent scientific commission is all that stands in the way of compliance with the suggestion of the National Geographical society that such a step, on the part of both Cook and Peary, should precede any official recognition of the explorers' claims.

Correspondence made public here shows that Commander Peary has already formally signified his willingness to comply with the condition, but Dr. Cook, in a letter to Archer Huntington, president of the American Geographical society, has declared that he will continue in his determination to lay all his records and instruments first before the University of Copenhagen.

According to the announcement made here Professor Ira Remsen, president of Johns Hopkins university, was asked several days ago by Henry F. Osborn, president of the American Museum of Natural History, and by Mr. Huntington, to appoint, through his authority as president of the National Academy of Sciences, a committee of astronomers, geographers and zoologists, to whom the records of Peary and Cook should be submitted. Dr. Remsen, in reply, telegraphed that he would be glad to appoint such a committee unless it were clearly understood that Peary and Cook were willing to submit their evidence to it.

Obtains Peary's Consent.

Mr. Osborn at once took steps to obtain the consent of Peary and Cook. He received the following dispatch from General Thomas H. Hubbard, on behalf of Commander Peary:

"Peary willing and desirous to submit all his records and data to National Academy committee or other scientists impartially selected."

Dr. Cook at first agreed with Mr. Huntington that there would be no better person to call together a number of scientists than Professor Remsen, but later reconsidered the matter and sent the following to Mr. Huntington:

"In pondering over the problems which you were kind enough to present to me at your visit yesterday, it appears to be an injustice to the Danes to consent to the appointment of another board of examiners after I had definitely agreed to submit my material first to the University of Copenhagen. I therefore ask your indulgence for a few months, and following the Danish investigation, the records will be sent to all the geographical societies of the world, after which it becomes public property. I appreciate the good offices of the American Geographical society, the fair and friendly attitude of its president and its members and will promise that they will have an early opportunity to go over the entire data of my polar conquest."

Moved Up a Notch.

His Wife—And you are to defend that shoplifter?

The Lawyer—My dear, she isn't a shoplifter. She was formerly, but she has saved so much money in the last ten years that she has become a kleptomaniac.—Stray Stories.

GROWN BY MOSQUITOES.

A Clergyman's Experience on a British Columbia Trip.

In 1860 the Rev. John Sheepshead, later on the bishop of Norway, was traveling through British Columbia. His book, "A Bishop in the Bush," relates his experiences on the trail, where the greatest disaster was caused by the swarms of blood-sucking mosquitoes. He met with Indians covered with paint, carrying bunches of trees in their hands, which they were sweeping around them as they walked. They were evacuating their country, being temporarily driven out by these pests. If by chance a traveler arrived at a clearing or an open space where there appeared to be an immunity from them, ere long they would appear.

"Quite early in the morning after meeting those Indians I issued from my tent and found an open space on the river's side where I could get my bath. But no sooner had I emerged from the water than I found swarms of mosquitoes assailing me, and, oh, what I would, slaughter them by dozens. I suffered severely."

"It was on that same day, dining at a wayside house, that I took part in a scene which I can never forget. There were twenty-five men going up to the mines. Food was on the table. There was a ceaseless hum in the apartment, for it was literally brown with thousands of mosquitoes."

"It was swelteringly hot, yet every man had made himself as impervious as he could. Each man wore his coat buttoned up, strings were fastened round his cuffs, and trousers also if he had not on top boots. They had gauntlets on their hands, their hats were on, and veils hanging down covered face and neck. A man would stick his fork into a piece of meat and pop in under the veil as quickly as possible. When drinking their coffee the men would hold the cup underneath the veil, first clearing out the bodies of the mosquitoes which possibly had been feeding upon the hairy miner close at hand."

"Not a word was uttered during that brief meal, for we were beaten down and cowed by the insects. The first words spoken were by a miner in pushing away his chair from the table, 'Oh, this God forsaken country!'"

PERSON TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION

Auditor for the Interior Department Quits.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Robert S. Person of South Dakota, auditor for the interior department, tendered his resignation to take effect Dec. 1.

The treasury department announced the appointment of Lieutenant Governor Howard C. Shober of Highmore, S. D., as successor to Mr. Person.

Person was appointed on the recommendation of former Senator Kittredge. That he has made a splendid officer was admitted at the treasury department, and that the change was made purely for political reasons was also admitted.

Lieutenant Governor Shober is one of Senator Kittredge's bitterest political enemies. Person was championed by the two representatives from the state.

In an interview with President Taft since he has been on his Western trip the president stated that he did not feel like asking for Mr. Person's resignation, but had been committed in the matter by promises made to the senators. It is openly charged that Senators Crawford and Gamble agreed to vote for the Aldrich-Payne bill only on condition that Person's place be given to Shober.

VESSELS NOW AT NEWBURGH

Another Chapter Added to the Big Celebration.

FORMAL TRANSFER IS MADE

The Half Moon and the Clermont Turned Over to the Upper Hudson Commission—Excursion Steamers Pour Loads of Humanity Into the City—Land Parade Is Similar to the One Held in New York City.

Newburgh, N. Y., Oct. 2.—With the Half Moon and Clermont swinging at anchor off shore against a background of illuminated warships and fireworks, Newburgh rounded out one of the greatest days in her history and added another chapter to the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

The vessels which have played so prominent a part in the events of the week were formally turned over to the keeping of the celebration's Upper Hudson commission by General Stewart L. Woodford, president of the Lower Hudson commission.

Mayor Benjamin McClurg welcomed the distinguished guests to Newburgh, and Governor Hughes paid his tribute in a brief address.

Lieutenant Lam, impersonator of Henry Hudson; Charles S. Bullock, the Robert Fulton of the present Clermont, and representatives from the Netherlands, were also introduced during the brief ceremony at the pier.

The steamer Trojan, with the state flag at her masthead, carrying the members of the legislature and state officials, was the first of the big river boats to put in an appearance. She was followed by the Robert Fulton, bearing Governor Hughes and staff; Governor Prouty of Vermont and Mrs. Prouty; members of the Hudson-Fulton commission and other official guests.

Greeted by Mayor McClurg.

They were greeted by Mayor McClurg and former Governor Benjamin B. Odell.

Beside the Clermont, when she came to anchor in Newburgh bay, lay the Norwich of Rondout, N. Y., the "oldest steamer in the world," which for seventy-six years has been in active service.

While the formal transfer of the Half Moon and Clermont was taking place, the long line of excursion steamers were pouring their loads of humanity into the city, and by the time the parade was ready to start the streets were packed with a dense crowd. It was the first time in Newburgh's history that the armed forces of a foreign country had paraded the streets of the city, and when the jacksies from the Utrecht of The Netherlands first swung into view along the line of march, they were received with an enthusiasm commensurate with the unprecedented nature of the event.

The parade was similar to the one in New York Thursday, although on a somewhat smaller scale. Troop B of Albany led the procession past the crowded reviewing stand where Governor Hughes and the other prominent visitors were seated.

AN ERA PASSED IN A WEEK

Celebration in Manhattan Harbor Is Ended.

New York, Oct. 2.—Henry Hudson has sailed north again, and the waters of Manhattan harbor, crowded with the navies of eight nations to do him honor, will mirror no more the crescent stern, the spreading spars and broad orange ensign of his caravel, the Half Moon. With her and her companion, the Clermont, have departed the symbolism and the life of the Hudson-Fulton celebration. They left New York as types and impersonations; they will return, after a space, as museum curiosities. An era has passed in a week. The escort squadron of merchant ships, with its freight of 500,000 passengers, which was to join the two little ships of progress at Cornwall and follow them into Newburgh bay, fell into line in the North river, noses upstream.

The Dutch cruiser Utrecht, the United States scout cruisers Salem and Birmingham, the submarines and their parent ships, the Castine, with the gunboats and naval auxiliaries, had preceded them, and the only ships of war in the line were the destroyer Worden and the six torpedo boats, which followed her at one hundred yard intervals.

Behind them came a fifteen mile string of Hudson river and Long Island sound liners.

They were as crowded as on the day of the first naval parade and all the way up the river they passed between long files of sightseers ashore.

Unknown Man a Suicide.

New York, Oct. 2.—The steps to the Hall of Fame at New York university were chosen by a nameless suicide, who shot himself in the head.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

Cooler Fall Weather Removes Bar to Fullest Development.

New York, Oct. 2.—Bradstreet's review of trade says that with the advent of cooler fall weather this week, a bar to fullest trade development has been removed and final distribution has been enlarged. Railway traffic is expanding and idle cars have about disappeared from the list as the crop, industrial and general merchandise movements have expanded. Industrial reports are still of expansion and trades allied to the iron and steel industries are returning reports of full or extra time. In the textile trades there are evidences that buyers and sellers are still apart on the question of prices of manufactured cottons. High raw material, the highest in fact recorded for years at this period, renders manufacturers disinclined to book freely at existing quotations. It is true some buyers for next spring and summer are evincing a willingness to pay advanced prices, and quotations are certainly firmer or higher as a whole, but a good portion of the trade still hangs off. Manufacturers, on the other hand, appear indifferent, and are discussing curtailment of production to bring about the claimed to be needed readjustment. In the woolen goods trade cancellations of early profuse orders have cleared the air of uncertainty as to the real proportions of business booked, some purely speculative ordering having been written off, but those goods and raw wool remain in a very strong position. In the leather trades export demand is reported better with prices strong.

WILLIE BOY A BAD INDIAN

Piute Kills His Young Sweetheart and Her Father.

San Bernardino, Cal., Oct. 2.—Developments in the chase across the desert wastes of San Bernardino county after "Willie Boy," a "bad" Piute Indian, form a thrilling chapter.

"Willie Boy" murdered his fourteen-year-old sweetheart, whom he carried away from the home of her father at Banning, four days ago, after he had killed her father, Old Boniface, because the latter refused to let his daughter go away. A posse of deputies found the body of the girl fifty-five miles away. Indian trailers were able to tell that "Willie Boy" had partly carried and partly dragged the girl in the last stage of their flight.

Goldfield, Nev., Oct. 2.—The administration of forestry regulations in mining states by Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot was the subject of sharp criticism at the American Mining congress.

Dr. E. R. Buckley of Flat River, Mo., was elected president of the congress for the ensuing year.
